May the Seniors of 1951, living over their high school days again through the pages of this annual, recall memories of their classmates, teachers, and freinds. May they face the future with the same enthusiasm, determination, and spirit of cooperation that they had during their high school career.

The Board Of Education is the heart of any school system. They are the men who spend time and energy to provide the school with the type of equipment and facilities necessary for mental and physical development and the right kind of teaching staff to administer to the needs of the students. To them we wish to extend our gratitude and thanks for the splendid service they have rendered.

We had anticipated the loss of at least one picture during the compilation of this annual but when the entire group of photos of our Board members was found missing, we were stunned.

Our apologies to the School Board and to you, the reader.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Here am I, seated in my office at No. 7 Champs-Elysees, Paris, France, this 13th day of September, 1961. My occupation as assistant to the foreign minister keeps me terribly busy; however, an incident that took place recently has aroused my curiosity as to the whereabouts and various professions of the members of my graduating class of '51.

My first aspirations to re-discover my old classmates came one day last week when one of my overworked secretaries went berserk and had to be transported to the psychiatric ward at Zurich. There I found a former friend, Bob Brachear; now Dr. Todd, healer of the insane. From all appearances he was the same save for a jagged scar across his face, which had been inflicted upon him by one of his patients. It seems the fellow, a native American, had fallen to pieces when his wife, the former Marlene Castleman, had left him to remarry--for the 4th time.

Being unable to return to the United States in order to contact all my old friends personally, I resolved to cable the one person whom I could depend upon, to secure all the information for me--Margie Muench. News of herself was surprising for I learned that she had relinquished her position at Franklin Life, and had become Mrs. Lawrence McVickers, wife of the Hampshire Swine Dealer at Williamsville.

Her first news was of Don O'Neal, now a Colonel at West Point, who was home for a brief visit. He related that Vivian Rhodes had been with a troupe of lady wrestlers, who had staged a benefit show at the academy.

Then came a jolt. Delores Oschwald, who was to marry Earl Fowler, had a sudden change of heart and refused to go through with the ceremony. According to Margie, it caused quite a scandal at Andrew, so Delores moved off to Sherman until the thing blew over.

Margie informed me that she has quite a chore keeping her husband away from the Vignali Tavern at Sherman. Besides running the tavern, Donnie is kept busy as President of the Sherman Athletic Club.

The greatest news of success came when I discovered that our own Nancy Groves had inherited a fortune from her cousin, Adlai Stevenson, and had purchased controlling interests in the Goodrich Rubber Corporation. It proved a double victory for Nancy, for Michael Ressigieu, Professor Agriculture at the U. of I., had finally asked her to marry him (irregardless of her financial status, of course!).

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Along with Nancy, another of our friends has come into wealth. Violet Sebring has taken out a life contract with a perfume manufacturer. She is now living among odors of Chanel No. 5, et cetera.

It appears that Janet Caskey, who is still employed at Butt's Insurance Company and who is, incidentally, engaged to the manager there, encountered Erma Heissinger on the street the other day. Unfortunately Erma must have lost some of her charm, for after all this time she is still single and living at home on the farm with Mother, Daddy, Warren, and Marilyn. Have we an old maid in our midst????

At the other end of the ladder we have Lucille Ray, now Mrs. Harvey Meeks. She resides in Petersburg with her husband and two children. Things are on the decline now though, since Harvey has lost his job as a New Salem guide. Lucy has found it imperative to take in washings, so perhaps Erma is the lucky one after all!

So much for the more morose side of life, Charles Burrus is owner of a 1500 acre farm near Buffalo Hart, where he is raising a new brand of hybrid seed corn. He gives most of the credit of his newly found prosperity to Ralph Camille, now a physicist for the U.S. Board of Agriculture, who developed the process for him. Ralph stated that his brother, Bob, had been his partner for a while but had drifted away to seek his fortune in the field of manufacturing radios for bicycles.

The field of radio and electronics brings to light another tale of success, only this time in television. Ouida Kitchens, after winning an amateur yoelizing contest, was given her own television show, which she calls "Prelude to the Grand Ol' Opery." Disaster hangs over this venture, however, for her sponsor, James Brewer, proprietor of the Brew Room (not to be confused with the Blue Room) wants to write all the scripts for her. Jim has become quite demanding, which comes to me as a surprise.

Don Miller, now happily married, recently announced the grand opening of his own business, Hairy's Barber Shop. Don sees Cecil Brooks every day now, as their vocations lead them to the same Springfield street. Cecil is the rector of the Washington Street Mission. Not very profitable, he says, but still a living.

I have failed in my attempt to locate one person, Tom Tobias. He was last seen being thrown off a boxcar in Chicago, by a railroad detective, but since then he has passed into oblivion.

Long live the class of '51.

Glenarm, Feb. 2—Overcoming a 24 to 13 first period deficit, Williamsville's powerful Billtowners rallied to beat Ball Township here tonight, 66 to 55.

The Billtowners, led by O'Neal and Jerry Seipel, who pumped in 23 and 21 points respectively, came from behind that 11 point margin to take a 36 to 32 halftime lead. They held that margin through the rest of the game.

Ball Township made a battle of it until the final frame when Williamsville began to pull away. Nelson's 21 points topped the hosts.

Third Straight, Nip Elkhart 32-28

Williamsville, Nov. 17—Williamsville, thanks to its accuracy at the free throw line, won its third game in three starts here tonight, whipping Elkhart, 32-28.

The Billtowners clicked on 12 of gratis shots to offset Elkhart's 10 advantage from the floor. The visitors were able to sink only four shots.

Seipel led the victors with 11 points while O'Neill dropped in 10. He scored eight for Elkhart.

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT THE SEASON!

- Nov. 10: The Bullets started off the season in a fine way by toppling a tough New Berlin crew 50-47.
- Nov. 14: The Bullets continued their winning ways by knocking off their old rival, Riverton, 50-46.
- Nov. 17: This is almost too good to be true! Defeated our two worst rivals in one week. Elkhart was the victim in a 32-28 count.
- Dec. 1: The Bullets tromped an undermanned Atlanta outfit 43-19.
- Dec. 2: The Bullets did likewise to Tallala by a 48-29 score.
- Dec. 8: The Billtowners, with their first team playing only half the game, romped over Greenvew 71-36.
- Dec. 9: We stopped Auburn's winning streak at seven by a score of 44-32.
- Dec. 12: Started off the Invitational in bang-up fashion by taking Middletown 46-34.
- Dec. 14: It begins to look as though this Billtown five is unbeatable. Took Riverton again 49-46.
- Dec. 15: Ooops! Spoke too soon. Got beat by Mt. Pulaski 51-26.
- Dec. 19: Got back in the winning way by defeating Middletown again, 70-40.
- Jan. 5: Looked a little rugged after the Christmas vacation, but succeeded in stopping Divernon 46-38.
- Jan. 12: Tri-City gave way to a 60-34 count. What a team!
- Jan. 13: Spoke out of turn again. Experienced our second loss to Petersburg 45-39.

- Jan. 19: Beat a tough Rochester outfit by a 51-41 score.
- Jan. 20: We dropped a heartbreaker to Cambridge. Billtown led the whole game, until, with 2 seconds left, Mosher of Cambridge dumped in a 25-footer to clinch it 59-58.
- Jan. 22: Took our first game in the County Tourney from Rochester 53-44.
- Jan. 24: Got into the semi-finals by trouncing Ball 58-38.
- Jan. 25: Riverton upset us 53-48.
- Jan. 26: Beat Auburn for third place 56-51.
- Feb. 2: Williamsville defeated Athens for the first time in many years of rivalry. Score was 47-44.
- Feb. 6: Made it 18 wins-4 losses by beating Pawnee 51-42.
- Feb. 9: Riverton evened the series 2 and 2 by beating us 46-39.
- Feb. 13: Mt. Pulaski again beat the Bullets 45-34. Let's go!
- Feb. 17: Ah! That's better. The Bullets eked out a 51-50 win over Elkhart on Chick Seipel's basket in the closing seconds of the thriller.
- Feb. 20: We did it! The Bullets got win number 20 by knocking over a hot Ball Township bunch 66-55.
- Feb. 23: Another close one. Beat Pleasant Plains 52-50.
- Feb. 27: Well, we tried, but the Lincoln Railsplitters were just a little too big for us. We were tromped 58-31.

P.S. I might add that in closing out this successful season with a 21-7 record, we established one of the best records run up by a Williamsville squad in many years. (Lincoln, after upsetting us, went on through the Sectional into the quarter-finals of the Illinois State Tournament.)
